Diversified Co-locates PMI Risk SIG N. American Conference at Philadelphia Event

TORONTO, CANADA - Conference Organizer Diversified Business Communications Canada announced an official partnership with the PMI (Project Management Institute) RiskSIG (Specific Interest Group) to co-locate their North American Symposium on Risk Management with the Project Summit & BusinessAnalystWorld: Philadelphia event.

Project Summit & BusinessAnalystWorld events are designed to meet the educational, networking and buying needs of project management and business analysis professionals. Based on the success of these industry leading brands in the US and Canada, Diversified Business Communications (DBC) is expanding its focus by partnering with the PMI RiskSIG.

"The synergy between the conferences is just perfect" said Adam Kahn, Group Event Director, DBC. "We know that attendees will take advantage of the opportunity and benefit from the increased content being offered. Once attendees register (regardless of discipline) they will be free to attend any Symposium Conference track. Additionally, we've added Risk Management workshops to the workshop portion of the event. Our mission is to increase our support of the project management and business analysis communities by creating the very best forums for cutting-edge education, community, and business interaction throughout North America and this partnership accomplishes just that."

"In our continued celebration of RiskSIG's 10th anniversary, we are working to make this the best year yet!" said Charles Bosler, Jr, Chairman, PMI RiskSIG "As part of our continued efforts to increase professional interchange and advancing the state of the art, we are joining our North American Symposium on Risk Management with Project Summit & BusinessAnalyst World: Philadelphia conference. Please join us in Philadelphia and make this a great year for the risk management profession."

Project Summit & BusinessAnalystWorld: Philadelphia & PMI RiskSIG Symposium on Risk Management will be held April 28 – May 1, 2008 at the Radisson Hotel Valley Forge, King of Prussia, PA.
